Forecast number of investment units issued and outstanding at end of period: 1,916,330 units

Forecast net income per unit: 3,300 yen

2. Reason for the Revision

In the outlook of business results for the thirty-sixth fiscal period ending July 2024 (February 1, 2024 to July 31, 2024) in “Financial Report for the Thirty-Fifth Fiscal Period Ended January 31, 2024,” MHR assumed that part of the gain on transfer of Laforet Harajuku (land) will be set aside as reserve for special account for reduction entry by applying “special provisions for taxation in cases of replacement of certain assets” (Article 65-7 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation) and “special provisions for taxation in cases of establishment of special account due to transfer of certain assets” (Article 65-8 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation). However, since the acquisitions of assets regarding replacement are unlikely to be decided by the announcement of the results for said fiscal period, MHR will change the assumption to allocate the entire amount of the gain on transfer to dividends as indicated in the Attachment. Since a difference of 5% or more is expected to occur in terms of dividend per unit as a result of such change as well as the reflection of the trend of the most recent financial results, MHR has decided to revise the forecasts of financial results and dividends.

(Notes)

1. The above forecasts have been calculated as of today based on the assumptions stated in the attachment, “Assumptions for Forecasts of Results for the Thirty-Sixth Fiscal Period Ending July 2024.” Therefore, actual operating revenue, operating income, ordinary income, net income, dividend per unit (excluding dividend in excess of earnings) and dividend in excess of earnings per unit may change due to factors such as change in the future acquisition or transfer of real estate, changes in the real estate market and other changes in circumstances, etc. regarding MHR. Therefore, the above forecasts do not guarantee actual performance or dividend amount.
2. MHR may revise the forecasts if it expects substantial discrepancies from the above forecasts.
3. Figures of less than one unit are rounded off and the percentage is rounded to the first decimal place. The same shall apply hereinafter.
